

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board

Non-Voting Student Representative Application Process

Section 61.0225 of the Education Code provides for the annual appointment of one non-voting student representative to the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board by the governor of the State of Texas. This statute defines the powers and duties of a student representative, representative, establishes the appointment and application procedure, and provides qualifications to be appointed and to remain a non-voting student representative throughout the term.

Powers and Duties

A non-voting student representative has the following powers and duties:

A non-voting student representative is not a state officer. A non-voting student representative has the same powers and duties as the members of Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, including the right to attend and participate in meetings of the board, except that the student representative:

- (1) may not vote on any matter before the board or make or second any motion before the board; and
- (2) is not counted in determining whether a quorum exists for a meeting of the board or in determining the outcome of any vote of the board.

10) June 1 or "as soon after as practicable, the governor shall appoint one of the applicants to serve as a non-voting representative to the Coordinating Board" for the A&M System "for a one-year term expiring on the next May 31."

Qualifications for Appointment and During Term

To be eligible for initial consideration, nominees must meet the following minimum criteria:

(1) Be enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student in a public institution of higher education;

(2) Be in good academic standing as determined by the institution;

(3) Commit to fulfill all board related responsibilities during their term of service, to include attendance at no less than 3 of 4 quarterly board meetings scheduled in January, April, July, and October; and

(4) Have a strong drive and self-motivation to contribute to the progress of higher education in Texas.

Also, the statute provides that: "throughout a student representative's term, the student must maintain a grade point average of at least 2.5 on a four-point scale." Failure to maintain such qualifications will result in the governor declaring the position vacant and subsequently filling the position.

Reimbursement for Expenses

The statute provides that: a student representative serves without compensation but is entitled to be reimbursed for the actual expenses incurred by the student representative in attending the meetings of the higher education coordinating board, subject to approval of the commissioner of higher education.
