Islander Mural Resolution

“A resolution supporting the creation of a mural on campus”

WHEREAS (1):

The Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi campus currently lacks publicly displayed art that represents the university. Because of this, there are few noteworthy signs or sights on campus that make the university instantly recognizable. So,

WHEREAS (2):

Hugo Martinez, Interim Program Coordinator for University Center Programs, presented the Student Government Association with a proposal for a mural to be installed on the side of the Center for Instruction facing the University Center. This mural is to be designed by Sandra Gonzales and Mira Rodriguez, alumni of the university who designed the mural on the Caller Times building, titled "Endless Sunset: The Colors of Our City."

WHEREAS (3):

A mural on the campus of A&M University-Corpus Christi would greatly benefit the image of the university and would be an excellent way to represent Islander Pride and the traditions of the university. By putting a mural on campus, incoming and graduating students would be provided with an opportunity to take a photo with a recognizable symbol of the university, which would increase and improve the reputation of the university.

Therefore Let it be Resolved (1):

That the Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Student Government Association endorses the creation and installation of a mural on campus.
