Campus Safety Resolution

"Calling for Texas A&M Corpus Christi to develop safety plans for faculty and students in their classrooms"

WHEREAS(1):

Many faculty and students have expressed concerns related to the preparation of the students and faculty in the case of an “active threat” event; and

WHEREAS(2):

The lack of knowledge on what the faculty and students are supposed to do in the case of an “active threat” event will cause confusion if an actual event were to occur; therefore

Let it be
Resolved (1):

That the Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi Student Government Association encourages Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi to develop a classroom safety procedure during “active threats”, present the procedures to faculty, and faculty present this information on the first day of class to students and include this information on each syllabus; and Therefore
Let it be
Resolved (2):

A copy of this resolution be sent to:

Dr. Kelly Quintanilla, President of A&M University-Corpus Christi
Alan Gutierrez, University Chief of Police
Roy D. Coons, Director, Environmental, Health & Safety
Dr. Frank Spaniol, Speaker of the Faculty Senate
