Class Registration Resolution
A resolution advocating for a change in the time students register for classes

WHEREAS(1):

Currently, as the course registration is set to open at midnight, it requires students to intentionally be available at midnight to register for classes that have a limited number of seats, thus unnecessarily affecting students’ daily routines; and

WHEREAS(2):

The registrar’s office, the IT service desk, advisers, instructors or any other support offices are not available at midnight to help students who may have questions or experience issues with registration, which in turn may result in a missed opportunity to enroll in a class with limited enrollments availability; therefore

Let it be
Resolved (1):

That the Student Government Association of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi encourages the university to adjust the time when registration opens to 8 am of the same day to align with regular university hours, giving students the ability to get support if they need it.
Therefore
Let it be
Further Resolved (2):

That a copy of this resolution be sent to Dr. Clarinda Philips, Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, and Melissa Chapa, University Registrar
