Resident Housing Association Act.
"A resolution endorsing the creation of a Resident Housing Association that would create a way for on campus residents to express their questions and concerns"

WHEREAS(1):
Currently, there is no Resident Housing Association or Committee at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi for on campus residents to join to address their questions or concerns; and

WHEREAS(2):
How residents usually express their questions or concerns is to their leasing office staff members. Another way residents communicate with their respective living communities, is visiting their Resident Assistant (RA) who may or may not be available to hear the residents issue and report; therefore

Let it be
Resolved:

That the Student Government Association supports the creation of the Resident Housing Committee. The committee structure will be as follows: Residents from each living community at least 8 from Miramar (4 residents living in residents halls, and 4 residents living in the apartments) and 8 residents from Momentum Village (4 residents from the apartments in phase 1 and phase 2, as well as 4 residents from town homes in phase 1 and phase 2.)
Therefore
